[Smith, Simon] fl. 1731-1746.

The danger of Great Britain and Ireland becoming provinces to France: or, A short view of the British products, compared with those of France; by which it will most evidently appear, that the fleets and armies of France, are at this time maintained out of the bowels of Great Britain and Ireland, by the infamous practice of smuggling. Being a serious and seasonable remonstrance to both Houses of Parliament; wherein is laid down a plain, easy, and effectual method, shewing how the exorbitant power of France may be more speedily reduced and destroyed, by negative discouragements, than from the most triumphant success in war; and that without wasting the blood and treasure of His Majesty's subjects. [Paris de Meyzieu, Jean Baptiste] d. 1778.

Bibliotheca Parisiana. A catalogue of a collection of books, formed by a gentleman in France, not less conspicuous for his taste in distinguishing, than for his zeal in acquiring, whatever, of this kind, was most perfect, curious, or scarce. It includes many first editions of the classics; books magnificently printed on vellum, with illuminated paintings; manuscripts on vellum, embellished with rich miniatures; books of natural history, with the subjects coloured in the best manner, or with the original drawings; and books of the greatest splendour and rareness in the different classes of literature. To these are added, from another grand collection, selected articles of high value. The whole are in the finest condition, and in bindings superlatively rich. They will be sold by auction, in London, on Monday the 26th of March, 1791, and the five days of following ... [London, From the press of J. Cooper, 1791]
