Price, L L

A most valuable and opportune contribution to the discussion of a burning question, 445
"a sound conclusion."

Combination of clear knowledge with the patient consideration of fact, and an unassuming genius of mind.

He is, nevertheless, a cautious advocate of the advantages of an eight hour day, 446

1934. The Meeting, 1934, p. 32. It is not broadly successful calm and discriminative, in possibility.
