Editorial Note

This is the twenty fourth volume of collected papers of the Mediterranean Studies Group at Hitotsubashi University. Up to the twelfth volume, the series was called Studies in the Mediterranean World. Past and Present and many of the articles were written in Japanese. From the thirteenth volume, the title of the series, now composed of papers in European languages, was changed to Mediterranean World. Volumes are published every two or three years.

The Mediterranean Studies Group was first organized at Hitotsubashi University in 1973, in order to carry out interdisciplinary research on the Mediterranean world. At that time, few studies on the Mediterranean area were undertaken in Japan, in comparison with studies on other areas of the world. Since it was founded, the Mediterranean Studies Group has held monthly seminars, offered special lectures by both Japanese and non-Japanese scholars, and organized field surveys in the Mediterranean countries concerned. We are greatly indebted to the Japanese Ministry of Education, Science and Culture for a number of grants-in-aid which have enabled us to conduct these research activities and publish the series.

This volume contains the papers based on the presentations by the participants in the Workshop co-organized by the Mediterranean Studies Group (Tokyo) and the University of Urbino Carlo Bo (Italy), titled “The Mediterranean as a Plaza”, which was held in March 22-23, 2018 at the University of Urbino Carlo Bo. The workshop program is attached to this editorial note below. We express our heartfelt thanks to the Dipartimento di Scienze della Comunicazione, Studi, Umanistici e Internazionali, University of Urbino Carlo Bo and especially Prof. Dr. Liana Lomiento. It would have been impossible for us to organize the Workshop without their support.

Finally we have to report the regretful news. Our dearest colleague, Dr. Maria Pia Pedani, Professor of University of Venice Ca' Foscari, and a member of our research group for such a long time, has passed away on 1st March, 2019. She was really an eminent scholar on the field of Near East History and Ottoman Empire History, and had played a leading role in the academic fields concerned in the Mediterranean and Islamic World. It goes without saying that her death is a great loss to us. We heartily appreciate and miss her kind contribution to our study group.
