

2022
HITOTSUBASHI ANNUAL OF SPORT STUDIES

Vol.40

The Past and Future of Social Scientific Research on Sport

CONTENTS

- | | |
|--|---|
| OZAKI Masataka
AONO Momoko
SASAO Shinta
KANEKO Fumihiro | Investigating Sport Policy in Japan from the Grassroots Perspective
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Gradation of Community Sport Policy in Japan: Towards the ‘Industrialization’ and ‘Commercialization’ of Sport?2. ‘Too Many Festivals, Not Enough Community-oriented Sport?’: Seeking to Shift Sport Policy in Japan, from ‘Olympic-oriented’ to ‘Community Sport-oriented’. |
| SAKAUE Yasuhiro
KUROSU Akari
SUZUKI Futa
TOMITA Kosuke
KUMAZAWA Takuya | Sport History as Method
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Prof. Sakaue’s Methodological Characteristics - “Interweaving” of Social and Sport- Specific Contexts2. Prof. Sakaue’s Understanding of Sport from a Social History Perspective |
| NAKAMURA Hidemasa | My Personal Proposal for the Future of Corporate Athletics Clubs |
| TAKEI Yotaro | A Terminological History of “HOKOU”: A Study of the Rapid Increase in Walking Practice in the 1990s |
| SAYO Kaiki | Popularization of Kōdōkan Judo and Actual Use of the Name “Kōdōkan Judo” in the Meiji Era: Focusing on the Publication Period of Kokushi |
| KATO Yousuke | Translating Raphael Verchere’s “Philosophie du Triathlon” |

The Sport Studies Institute
Hitotsubashi University
Kunitachi, Tokyo, Japan

ISSN 1880-3814