
contents

004 Editor's Note

Toward a Theoretical Reconsideration of the Interface between the Social and the Material
Takefumi UEDA

Special Issue

Infrastructure Politics

005 Introduction

Infrastructure Politics: Questioning Reliability of Modernity and Its Basis
Takefumi UEDA

012 Governmentality and Materiality: A New Approach to the City

Junji NISHIKAWA

020 A Moment of "Subjection" in the Reception of Crinoline by Servants:

Focusing on "Longing," "Imitation," and "Resistance" in Fashion
Saki SUNAGA

030 A Historical Geography of Kamagasaki and the "People's Infrastructure"

Takeshi HARAGUCHI

038 Materiality of Intervention: A Note on the Infrastructure Question

Yutaka IWADATE

049 The Wisdom of Concreteness after the 12th of March

Motonao MORI

056 The Emergence of the State in Civil Society after the Earthquake:

Military Governmentality in Japan
Keisuke MORI

066 Appendix

Infrastructural Perspective on the (Re)Formation of Contemporary Society: Events, Scenery, and Governmentality
Keisuke MORI, Yutaka IWADATE, and Saki SUNAGA